Re: United States v. Manuel Nieves
05 CR 101

Dear Judge Gleeson:

The defendant's bail includes a restriction that he reside with his girlfriend at her home. The house has been sold, however, and the new residence cannot yet be occupied. (Local housing inspections have not yet taken place.)

The defendant had to relocate and with the permission of Pre-Trial Services he is (temporarily) residing with his cousin, Frances Perez, and her baby, at 171 Irving Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11237, Apartment 2R.

I have been unable to reach the assigned prosecutor, but, as noted, Pre-Trial Services approves of this temporary change.

I respectfully request that the defendant's bail be modified to require him to reside in premises authorized by Pre-Trial Services.

Respectfully yours,

BARRY GENE RHODES
